Full time - from 1st September 2019 or earlier if possible

The Governing Body wish to appoint an inspirational and creative teacher to play a crucial role in pupil development in lower KS2. We are a school committed to providing children with the very best start in life and are fortunate to work with children who are enthused and keen to learn. The school has been on an upward journey over the last two years and we are keenly focused on our drive to become good and better. OFSTED said in Nov 2017:

“Under the inspirational leadership of the new Head Teacher and Senior Leaders, an ethos of high expectations has been created. The whole-school community is committed to raising aspiration for all.”

This is an exciting opportunity to play a key role in the improvement of learning at Rednal Hill Junior School.

We are looking for candidates who can demonstrate the following:

- have an up to date knowledge of the curriculum and a passion to innovate and excite children in their learning
- have excellent organisation, communication and interpersonal skills
- are committed to the principles of inclusion
- have high expectations of behaviour

If you are interested in working in an exciting, forward thinking school, with a real focus on ‘improving learning’, then we would like to hear from you.

In return we offer you:

- a friendly and supportive working environment with a dedicated staff team, hardworking children, supportive parents and governors
- opportunities for CPD and career progression

Closing Date: Thursday 11th April 2019 at 12pm

Interviews will be held on Tuesday 7th May
